BRING THIS PROGRAM WITH YOU

The programs for the Rural Life Conference and the Conference on Civic Problems have been planned in cooperation with and assisted by the Division of Program Study and Discussion of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture and the U.S.D.A. Club.

INFORMATION FOR THOSE WHO CANNOT ATTEND

Broadcast.—Due to gasoline rationing there will be many people unable to attend Farm and Home Week. Therefore, arrangements have been made to broadcast as much of the program as possible. Features to be broadcast are indicated by an asterisk and can be heard over station W I L L, 580 on your radio dial.

INFORMATION FOR VISITORS

Registration.—Every visitor is urged to register immediately upon arrival. There is no registration fee. Registration headquarters will be maintained in the Auditorium.

Exhibits.—An exhibit of interest to both farmers and homemakers will be found in Room 600, at the southeast corner of the first floor in the Old Agriculture Building. The annual seed grain show and acre-yield contest is located on the fourth floor of the New Agriculture Building. An exhibit of farm and home equipment including tractors, machine repairs, corn borer control, seed cleaning equipment, farm building plans, and rural electrification, is in the Agricultural Engineering Building. Guests are welcome to visit any of the college laboratories and the college farms.

Meals.—Meals may be secured at the Illini Union Building between the hours of 7:15-9:00 a.m., 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m.; and 5:30-7:00 p.m. There will be a lunch stand operated by the Agricultural Engineering students in the Agricultural Engineering Building.

Rooms.—A list of rooms available in the University district for Farm and Home Week visitors will be maintained at the registration desk in the Auditorium.

Lost and Found.—Articles lost should be reported and those found turned in to registration headquarters in the Auditorium.

Illness and Accidents.—Illness or accidents should be reported promptly to the registration desk in the Auditorium. First aid service will be rendered by the University Health Station, telephone 7-1821.

Publications.—Bulletins, circulars and other available printed information of the College of Agriculture are on display in the Auditorium. Cards are provided on which requests may be made for any of the publications desired.

Museums.—The Classical Archaeology and Art and the European Culture museums (top floor, Lincoln Hall) are open to visitors from 11:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Elevator service direct to these museums is available in the north corridor of Lincoln Hall, near the west entrance.

For identification of speakers, see pp. 21 to 24.
